Commerce, Management, and Entrepreneurship Committee

The Commerce, Management, and Entrepreneurship Committee (CMEC) aims to promote holistic development and entrepreneurial skills among students. The committee operates with the following policies to guide its activities and initiatives:

1. Vision and Mission:

- Vision: To nurture future business leaders, managers, and entrepreneurs by providing students with opportunities to explore, innovate, and develop essential skills for success in the global business environment.
- Mission: To foster an entrepreneurial mindset, promote management excellence, and provide commerce-related education and activities that enhance students' knowledge and employability.

2. Objectives:

- To provide students with exposure to practical aspects of commerce, management, and entrepreneurship.
- To organize workshops, seminars, and competitions that enhance business acumen, management skills, and entrepreneurial thinking.
- To encourage innovative thinking, problem-solving, and leadership among students.
- To create networking opportunities by collaborating with industry professionals, business leaders, and alumni.
- To foster teamwork, communication, and organizational skills through committee participation and events.

3. Scope of Activities:

- Workshops and Seminars: Regular sessions with industry experts on topics such as business strategy, financial planning, marketing, and entrepreneurship.
- Competitions and Events: Organize business plan competitions, management games, and entrepreneurial pitch events to stimulate creativity and critical thinking.
- Guest Lectures and Networking: Invite successful entrepreneurs, managers, and professionals to share their experiences and provide real-world insights.
- Skill Development Programs: Conduct sessions on leadership, communication, and team management to equip students with soft skills needed in the corporate world.
- Field Visits and Internships: Arrange industrial visits and internship opportunities to give students hands-on exposure to business operations.

4. Inclusivity and Participation:

- The committee is open to all students pursuing commerce, management, or related fields.
- Students are encouraged to actively participate in all events, contribute ideas, and take up leadership roles within the committee.
- Equal opportunities will be provided to all students to ensure an inclusive learning environment.

5. Collaboration and Partnerships:

- CMEC will collaborate with academic departments, external institutions, and business organizations to provide a rich array of activities.
- It will also seek partnerships with alumni and local entrepreneurs to provide mentorship and industry connections for students.

6. Ethical Practices:

- The committee operates with a strong commitment to integrity, professionalism, and ethical behaviour in all its activities.
- It will ensure that all events, collaborations, and activities are conducted in a manner that upholds fairness, transparency, and respect for all participants.

7. Continuous Improvement:

- The committee will regularly review its policies, programs, and initiatives to ensure they meet the changing needs of students and industry trends.
- Feedback from students, faculty, and industry professionals will be sought to improve the quality and relevance of committee activities.

8. Evaluation and Recognition:

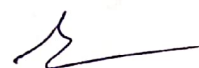

- The committee will recognize and reward outstanding contributions from students in terms of leadership, innovation, and participation.
- An annual evaluation of the committee's activities will be conducted to measure the effectiveness of its programs and ensure alignment with the institution's educational goals.

By adhering to these policies, the Commerce, Management, and Entrepreneurship Committee aims to create a vibrant ecosystem that fosters learning, innovation, and professional growth among students.
