- Prashant Bhosale, Assistant Wildlife Conservator

Objective:

To create awareness about the protection of tigers and their importance in nature and human life, on the occasion of International Tiger Day.

The program began with a warm introduction and welcome by Prof. Dr. S. S. Tadakhe, HoD, Geography and Coordinator, Nature Lovers Club. The competition was inaugurated by the director of the institute, Mr. Sanjiv Chavan, Forest Officer, Mr. Sachin Patgaonkar, and the principal of the college, Dr. S.D. Pawar. The resource person guided the contestants, followed by an explanation of the competition rules by the judges. The judges then examined all the posters and announced the results of the poster presentation competition.

Outcome:

The competition successfully raised awareness about tiger conservation and encouraged students to think creatively about the importance of protecting tigers and their habitat. The event was a resounding success, with 354 students participating and actively engaging in the poster exhibition and competition.

The poster exhibition and competition on "Save Tiger" was a successful event that achieved its objective of creating awareness about tiger conservation. The event was made possible through the joint efforts of the Forest Department of Patan and Balasaheb Desai College, Patan and the active participation of students, resource persons, and examiners.
