Brief Report of the Activity: Celebration of World Tourism Day

Date: Wednesday, September 27, 2023

The Department of Geography at Balasaheb Desai College, Patan organized a celebration to mark World Tourism Day. The event aimed to create awareness among students about the significance of tourism and its impact on the global community.

The program began with a warm introduction and welcome by Prof. Dr. S. S. Tadakhe, Head of the Department of Geography. Dr. S. P. Patil, the Chairperson of the event, delivered a presidential speech that highlighted the importance of tourism in promoting cultural exchange, economic growth, and sustainable development.

The Chief Guest, Mr. S. J. Sakat from Venutai Chavan College, Karad, shared his valuable insights on the tourism industry and its potential for growth. The event also saw the presence of esteemed guests, Mr. R.U. Gaikwad from Krishna Mahavidhyalay, Rethare Bk., and Mr. A.L. Mane from Arts & Commerce College, Koyananagar.

Twenty-four students participated in the event, which included a thought-provoking discussion on the significance of World Tourism Day. The program concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Amol Mane, who expressed gratitude to the guests, faculty members, and students for making the event a success. The celebration achieved its objective of creating awareness about World Tourism Day and its importance in promoting tourism and sustainable development.

Outcome: Students gained knowledge about World Tourism Day and its significance. Students understood the importance of tourism in promoting cultural exchange, economic growth, and sustainable development. Students developed an appreciation for the role of tourism in shaping the global community

Recommendations: Organize more events and activities related to tourism and sustainable development. Invite industry experts to share their experiences and insights with students. Encourage students to participate in tourism-related projects and research.
